Alliance Aviation Services Limited (ASX code: AQZ)

Extension to Viva Energy Aviation Fuels Agreement

Alliance Aviation Services Limited ("Alliance") today announces that it has executed an extension of its Agreement with Viva Energy Aviation Pty Ltd ("Viva Energy").

The five (5) year extension of the agreement provides for Viva Energy to supply fuels and lubricants to Alliance around Australia at over 40 locations.

Viva Energy has been a long-term partner of Alliance, both as Viva, and when it traded under the Shell brand. This amendment builds on an 18 year relationship and, at the end of the current term, will mean there has been a continuous supply agreement between the two companies for over 23 years.

Alliance Chief Executive Officer, Mr Lee Schofield, commented, "Viva Energy has been a long-term strategic partner of Alliance since the company's inception. The execution of this extension agreement is fundamental to Alliance's ongoing focus on our three core values of safety, operational reliability and financial sustainability."
